(Special to The Argus.)

Galesburg, Ill., Nov. 29.—Crushed between the trunk of a tree on a steep hillside and a wagon heavily loaded by cord wood, Rev. William H. Shaw of Medora, Ind., perished in a tragic manner. His 4 1/2-year-old son stood guard over his father's body for four hours, driving away a drove of hogs which had attempted to get at the body. The parents of Rev. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. H. Shaw of this city, returned home last week from the funeral at Medora. He was the youngest of seven children, the rest of whom with the parents survive. A graduate of Union Christian college at Merom, Ind., he had been the pastor of the Christian church in Medora for several years. He was a member of the Masons, Knights of Pythias and other fraternal orders.

START SEAT SALE FOR THE PAVLOVA BALLET ON DEC. 10

The seat sale for the Pavlova ballet at the Coliseum, Davenport, will start on Friday, Dec. 10. Seats can be secured at the Cable Music house here, at Schmidt's Music house in Davenport or at the Tri-City Music house in Moline, according to announcement made this morning. Pavlova is to be here on Dec. 27.

After an absence of nearly four years, in which she has multiplied her triumphs and elaborated and matured her art in South and Central America, Spain, France, Belgium and England, Anna Pavlova, "The Incomparable" Russian dancer, is making a limited tour of the principal cities of the United States and Canada under the management of Fortune Gallo, the grand opera impresario.

Mlle. Pavlova brings with her the Ballet Russe with which she has been surrounded for five years. Her dancing partner is Alexandre Volinine, long familiar to her followers. She also has the support of Marie Olovera, a distinguished Russian, seen in American for the first time, as premier danseuse.

Beside providing an especially organized symphony orchestra under the directorship of Theodore Sier, Mr. Gallo has brought the scenery, costumes and other equipment from London.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago, the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Weyb's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. ## MOTOR THIEVES LEAVE NOTE TO OWNER OF AUTO

"Thanks for the use of your car. We hope we never hurt it." This note was found in a stolen car left in front of the Central Union Telephone building yesterday morning. It was a Chandler coupe belonging to Fred Barr of Davenport, and stolen last Friday night.

Added to the above two sentences, the joy-riding-motor-car thieves said: "If you don't like it, you can go to — and also the bulls."

The note was written on a piece of wrapping paper and was unsigned. It was found on the floor of the car with several bottle tops and cigar butts. The auto was not damaged, so far as could be determined by the owner, but had been driven a considerable distance during the night, as the thieves used about twelve gallons of gasoline.

The machine was taken from in front of the Linden flats, Third and Scott streets, Davenport, some time between 8 and 11 o'clock Friday night, while the owner was attending the shrine ceremonial at Turner hall.
